Rules of Operation for MAFA Meetings

MAFA groups exist for the purpose of gathering people together at the local level for fellowship and community; to work toward freedom from medical tyranny; and to address negative consequences of COVID policies at the community level.

MAFA groups operate according to rules and regulations established by the parent organization, Make Americans Free Again, in Worthington Ohio. The role of the MAFA leader is to make sure that the meeting format and activities are consistent with those established by the parent organization, and to keep their groups on track.

MAFA group leaders are responsible for ensuring that members of the groups are members of Make Americans Free Again (means they have filled in all fields in the online data base at www.makeamericansfreeagain.com).

MAFA group leaders agree to adhere to the rules established in the Meeting Leader Handbook.

MAFA groups meet in-person only (except in the case of weather-related emergencies)

MAFA leaders follow the meeting format which is sent to group leaders weekly.

MAFA group leaders restrict the activities of their groups to those expressly permitted by MAFA which are outlined in the meeting leader handbook.

MAFA group leaders may raise money for MAFA via fundraisers or by soliciting donations. Leaders agree to notify MAFA when a fundraiser or campaign is scheduled, and to remit funds to MAFA in Worthington Ohio within one week of receipt.

MAFA leaders use only promotional materials posted on the website

MAFA groups operate solely under the Make Americans Free Again name

MAFA meeting leaders and members may not hire attorneys, experts or staff; may not commit to MAFA legal actions any other activity not expressly approved by MAFA.

Either party may terminate this agreement for material breach at any time by giving written notice to the other.

In the event that meeting leader decides to resign, meeting leader will inform Make Americans Free Again via email or by postal service:

info@makeamericansfreeagain.com
510 East Wilson Bridge Road Suite G
Worthington Ohio 43085

Upon termination, Meeting Leader will stop using logos, names, and other marks belonging to MAFA; and will not recruit MAFA members to other groups.
